Wedding Reception Information Sheet

The following has been provided to assist you while filling out the Reception PLANNING Sheet. The information includes tips, ideas and suggestions for a successful party. If you have any questions, please call us.

Entrance of Wedding Party

Upon arrival at your reception site, we suggest formally starting the event with a grand entrance of the wedding party followed by the bride & groom. This announcement serves as the kick-off to the party and also an enthusiastic recognition of friends and special loved ones. We will coordinate the entrance order of each couple and then announce each name as they enter. We are also happy to accompany the announcements with an appropriate musical background.

Entrance of The Bride & Groom

As your MC announces the entrance of the bride and groom your friends and family will rise and greet you with a warm applause and cheers.

Bride/Groom to Welcome and Thank Guests

In recent years, a receiving line has become less popular because of the time it takes. The following is a fun and memorable way of greeting your guests and serves as a good alternative to the typical receiving line. Upon entering the room, we encourage you to acknowledge your guests. We are happy to provide you with a wireless mic. This is a wonderful opportunity to welcome everyone and to do any special acknowledgements, such as guests who have traveled a long distance, or friends and family who have contributed in the preparation of the ceremony or reception. It's especially meaningful to hear from the bride and groom how important their friends and family are to them.

Food / Meal

Immediately following your welcome (and toasts if done before the meal), we recommend having the meal service begin. Remember, although you have just arrived, your guests have been waiting for some time. During the pre-planning stages, inform your caterer what time you expect to arrive, when you would like the toast to occur, and that you would like the meal service to begin shortly after arrival. Once you have had the opportunity to enjoy your meal, it is a good time for the bride and groom to visit with their guests. Typically, most guests will still be eating and you will have about 20 minutes to mingle table to table. Choose the tables of the guests who have traveled the longest distance or those you haven't seen for a while to visit first. The DJ/MC also enjoys the opportunity pass around the room and briefly get to know your guests. This allows for more personal interaction between DJ and guests and good music requests are often given to compliment the after dinner dancing. We are often hired to also present a short dinner video with pictures / video footage and music showing a combination of childhood years, friends, family and more recent sweetheart photos. We can produce the video and/or provide the A/V for it. Call us for more information.

Toasts

The toast is usually done before or at the conclusion of the meal. Your DJ/MC will coordinate all aspects of this event. After the champagne has been poured, we will have a wireless mic available for your best man, maid of honor, fathers, or any others to say a few words. If you are considering open toasting, we recommend that you allow some time (approx 10 to 15 minutes) at the conclusion of dinner for guests to say a few special words.

Cake Cutting

Following the toasts and/or some initial dancing is the traditional cutting of the cake. We encourage you to pick an appropriate song for this event according to the atmosphere you want. Typical selections range from romantic slow songs to energetic playful songs. During most occasion, your guests will get more animated, and give their enthusiastic encouragement to the bride and groom during the feeding of the first piece of cake. The fun of this formality is in the anticipation. We suggest that you have a playful, yet sensible attitude while feeding each other.

First Dance Song

All of the attention is now focused on the dance floor. The first few notes of your special song begin to play as you begin to share your first dance as husband and wife. On occasion, some couples choose to have the wedding party join them halfway through the dance. By doing this, you give the photographer an opportunity to photograph your wedding party.

Father/Daughter and Mother/Son Dance Songs

You can choose a special song for the parents of the bride and groom. Some will first dedicate a song to the bride and her father, followed by a song dedication to the groom and his mother. Others will play one song for both. If appropriate, this can be a very meaningful moment for parent and child. Another option is to have your DJ invite all fathers/daughters or mothers/sons to join in halfway through this dance.

Other Spotlight Dance

For some brides, a special dance with a Stepfather, Uncle, Brother, or close family friend is done in lieu of, or in addition to, a parents dance. If appropriate, let us know how we can best incorporate an event like this to make it personal.

General Dancing

It's important that the bride and groom remain on the dance floor for the first fast dance as it will make it more inviting as your guests start dancing. As we observe the reaction of your guests, we can then best determine which songs to play. Your DJ/MC makes a consistent effort to "read the crowd" to keep guests of all ages dancing and having fun. The very best parties always have a mixture of songs that please and entertain all age groups. Feel free to utilize our music coordination worksheet to give valuable feedback to the types of music and songs you like.

Bouquet Toss

Your DJ will gather the single ladies on the dance floor. You will want to be sure to have your throw bouquet handy. Your DJ will get the energy level up with a song of your choice as he counts the throw with you, "3-2-1". Following the catch, the photographer will want to get a special photo of the bride with the woman who caught the bouquet. If you want an alternative to this bouquet toss tradition, please let us know. We will be happy to suggest other options that will allow you to give away your bouquet and still create a unique and memorable moment for you and your guests.

Garter Removal/Toss

Your DJ will invite all of the single men to the dance floor. For the garter removal, the bride can sit on a chair or on the best man's knee. The groom will then get down on one knee (or variation) in front of his bride. Once the garter has been removed, your DJ will begin the countdown for the toss, "3-2-1". The gentleman who catches the garter will then be joined on the dance floor with the woman who caught the bouquet. The bride and groom will then join them for a fun, candid photo.

Money Dance A.K.A. "Honeymoon Dance"

If you decide to do a money dance, your DJ/MC will announce it as an opportunity for your friends and family to share a portion of a special slow dance and some special words with the bride or groom. As wording is important in introducing this event, guests are welcome to "give the bride and groom something for their honeymoon, but not expected to". If necessary, the DJ will ask the best man and maid of honor to assist him. They will help ensure the timely flow of the guest and collect the money. It's important that the bride and groom remain on the dance floor at the conclusion of the money dance. As the music tempo picks up, your presence will encourage all guests to join you as the fast dancing resumes.

Dedications, Birthdays, Anniversaries, etc.

Be sure to list any special announcements you would like your MC to make. This is a great way to personalize your event and recognize someone special.

Sensitive Subjects

Your Spotlight DJ will conduct himself or herself in a professional and courteous manner at all times throughout your reception. If you feel we need to be aware of any sensitive information regarding your event, family, or guests, let us know.

Anything Else We Should Know?

If you are having a video presentation, a singer, musicians, fraternity/sorority serenade, centerpiece giveaway, or any other personalized additions that will make your party unique please list them. Your Spotlight DJ will offer suggestions regarding the sequence and timing of these special touches.

SPOTLIGHT
ENTERTAINMENT

This is just a sample of our extensive music library.

Things we wanted you to know...Please read and retain for easy reference.*

The Spotlight Entertainment Staff

Planning your wedding can be a lot of work, but it should also be a lot of fun. Our goal is to provide you with helpful ideas and suggestions that will reduce your work and increase your overall enjoyment. If you have any questions regarding your contract, reception planner, payments, etc., please call and speak with our Entertainment Coordinator, Sam Kabat. In addition, Sam is available to answer any questions regarding special music ideas, traditional formalities, order of events, etc. We can also offer referrals for photographers, videographers, ceremony musicians, or any other wedding services.

Planning Your Wedding Reception

We believe that the pre-reception planning session with your Spotlight Entertainment Coordinator is valuable in personalizing our approach to create a successful event. It is important to note that this planning session should be done at least 4 weeks prior to your reception. This can be done in our office or by phone if needed. Both bride and groom are encouraged to be involved. In addition, a short meeting by phone or in person will take place the week of your event to cover all the last minute details.

Our Sound System & Set-Up

One of the most important factors in the success of your reception is where our DJ sound system is to be set. It is critical that the DJ system is placed in an area directly next to the dance floor, and that the DJ have a good line of sight to the entrance of the room, head table and cake table. As your Master of Ceremonies, we need to be able to see each of these areas in order to control the timing of each. It is not a good idea to surround your dance floor on all four sides with tables. Remember, our speakers need to carry sound to the dance area. If there are tables directly between the speakers and the dance floor, the guests seated at those tables will have an uncomfortable level of sound. Please be sure to provide us with a minimum of a 6' X 10' area to set our sound systems and speakers. If you have guests seated in an adjacent area or room, we can provide additional speakers so that all your guests can hear the announcements and music at a comfortable level. A nominal charge will apply for this customized speaker package.

The Sequence Of Events

In addition to the set-up, the sequence of events is also a very important part of the overall success of your wedding reception. (see reception information sheet) As entertainment professionals, we are experts at helping you plan the best sequence for all the events and formalities. While you may get ideas from others, your Master of Ceremonies is uniquely qualified to create the perfect sequence for you – one that flows smoothly from one event to the next, while maximizing guests enjoyment and participation. The Spotlight Event Coordinator will be happy to share with you the professional expertise that will help you customize the very best party.

Gratuities

Unlike many other service professionals, we do not contractually add service charges or gratuities. After considering the advanced pre-planning with your MC, the level of service and quality of presentation, along with your overall enjoyment, we believe you should decide for yourself what level of gratuity, if any, you would like to give. As a reference, a tip of 10% - 15% is most common. For accounting purposes, we ask that you pay any gratuity directly to the MC.

Food & Drink

If you would like to provide us with a meal, please discuss it first with your MC. Vendor meals are often available for us without the additional cost being incurred by you. We will make this arrangement with the banquet staff upon our arrival. Our staff never consumes alcoholic beverages. However, providing ice water and soft drinks is greatly appreciated.
